VARIED PROGRAM.

The women of an Indiana town recently organized a literary club, and for a while everything was lovely.

"Alice," asked the husband of one of the members, upon her return home from one of the meetings, "what was the topic under discussion by the club this afternoon?"

Alice couldn't remember at first. Finally, however, she exclaimed: "Oh, yes, I recollect! We discussed that brazen-looking woman that's just moved in across the street and Longfellow."—Philadelphia Record.

Reid—Didn't I see you going along in your automobile today? Greene—What time? Reid—Four o'clock. Greene—Four o'clock? Oh, yes, we were going then!—Yonkers Statesman.

"If I were you I wouldn't be a fool, Diggs." "True," replied Diggs, complacently. "The unfortunate part of it is that you are yourself."—The Circle.

"He is going into politics; he thinks he's a politician." "What does his wife think?" "She's too much of a lady to tell."—Boston Traveler.

The leaders will probably be announced next Monday evening.

Strangers are cordially invited to attend the services of this church.

Hardly had the proud father entered the sick room to get his first glimpse of the new twins than both newborns set up a loud howling. "Now, now," cautioned the father, holding up his hand and glancing from one red face to the other, "one at a time; one at a time!"

Teacher—Yes, Willie, the earth goes round the sun. Now what goes around the earth?

Willie (confidently)—Hoboes, ma'am!
